AN IT IS WRITTEN MINISTRY

Giving

CHALLENGE

Be a blessing!

Toward the middle of their school holiday, Sophia, Ruth, and Jonathan were beginning to get bored. As they sat around trying to think of something they could do, Ruth suddenly exclaimed, "I've got it!"

"What?" Sophia and Jonathan replied in unison.

"We can secretly do nice things for people in need," Ruth said.

"That sounds like it would be a lot of fun," Jonathan replied.

At once they began to make a list of people who could benefit from their new adventure and what they would do for them.

The Bible talks a lot about caring for those in need (James 1:27, Deuteronomy 15:11, Galatians 6:9, and Hebrews 13:16). There are people all around us who would be blessed by someone doing something considerate for them, especially during the holiday season.

Join the My Place With Jesus Giving Challenge and give someone something to be thankful for. Send your completed challenge form to me by December 3, 2018 and receive a certificate of completion and a surprise from My Place With Jesus!

You could choose to do this as a family, a class, or with a group of friends. However you decide to take the challenge, you are guaranteed to receive the biggest blessing.

My Place With Jesus Giving Challenge

..... Steps to Creating Happiness

Find someone in need

If you don't already know of someone near you, try asking your pastor, a school principal, or a trusted friend.

Prepare your surprise package

You may choose to give money or a gift card, or purchase items for a food basket. You may decide to rake leaves or deliver flowers. There are limitless ideas you can choose from.

Deliver your package

Whatever you decide to do, try not to get caught.

Some special tags, cards, and envelopes have been created for you to use for your packages.
