

JOURNEY Through the BIBLE

Jesus had just finished choosing twelve men—disciples—who were going to help Him in ministry. He wanted to share some very important principles with them that would impact their lives. A large crowd of people began to gather. These people had come from all around to see Jesus. Because there wasn't enough room for this large group, Jesus led them to a hill where they all sat and listened while He gave the most important sermon of all time.

My prayer for you is that as you read the words of Jesus, you will be blessed by the message of the Bible and grow closer to Him every day.

Today, when an important person addresses a large crowd they use microphones and speakers so everyone can hear. How do you think everyone heard Jesus' sermon on the mount?
