

JOURNEY Through the BIBLE

The crowd stood around admiring the beauty and majesty of Jerusalem and its temple. Jesus knew that one day the temple would be thrown to the ground in a heap, and this thought brought sadness to His heart.

Wanting His disciples to be prepared for the things to come, He told them of things that would take place before the temple was destroyed. Jesus wanted them to watch and pray. He assured them that if they followed His instructions, they would escape and not perish.

Jesus is coming soon! The same instruction Jesus gave His disciples, He gives to us. Watch and pray. By reading your Bible and staying connected with Jesus, you are preparing yourself to meet Him when He returns.

Think about this:

Jesus said that when we feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and visit the sick and imprisoned, we are also doing those things to Him (Matthew 25:34-45). How are you ministering to Jesus?
