

JOURNEY Through the BIBLE

Jesus' work on earth is now over, but He is not going to leave His disciples abandoned.

Jesus kept His promise to send the Holy Spirit to comfort, guide, and work through His people to take the gospel to the world. Peter and the disciples spread the good news of their risen Savior and King with boldness!

It is my prayer that their enthusiasm will inspire you to say with Paul, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth" (Romans 1:16). Jesus is coming soon! Share Him with others, and invite them to join you as you look toward the heavens waiting for His return.

Think about this:

Watching a helium-filled balloon disappear into the sky until it can't be seen anymore reminds me of what the disciples' reaction might have been when Jesus returned to heaven.

To complete this activity:

1. Color the scene of the disciples, as well as the figure of Jesus.
2. Cut out the two strips, Jesus, and along the dotted lines on the scene.
3. Center and glue Jesus where indicated on the first strip (His head and feet will not be glued down to the strip).
4. Feed the strip with Jesus through the slits on the scene.
5. Glue the second strip to the first where indicated. Now you have a loop to move Jesus up and down in the air.
