

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

After David's victory against Goliath and the Philistines, King Saul gave David authority over all his men of war. The king felt this would help protect himself and his kingdom. But it wasn't long before Saul became jealous of David and looked for ways to get rid of him!

King Saul's son Jonathan and David became best friends. David was loyal to King Saul and couldn't understand why the king was so angry with him. Jonathan tried everything he could to protect David from his father, but soon—for his own safety—David had to flee for his life.

Jealousy is a bad thing. It can cause hard feelings and bitter experiences. Don't become discouraged if others try to make life hard for you. Never forget that your best friend, Jesus, will always stand up for you and protect you.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

The Bible tells us (1 Samuel 17:4) that Goliath was just over a foot taller than Robert Wadlow—the tallest man in the world—who was 8 feet 11 inches tall! Can you work out how tall Goliath was?
