

JOURNEY Through the BIBLE

A new king is now on the scene in Egypt after the death of Joseph and his brothers, but is not at all sympathetic toward the children of Israel. He did everything he could to decrease their population and made their work nearly impossible. In spite of his attempts to weaken them, God was with them. As part of God's plan to free them from bondage, a deliverer was born!

Get ready for another exciting Journey Through the Bible as we watch God's hand of protection over the children of Israel and His patience with them as He prepares Moses to deliver them from their many years of slavery (Genesis 15:13).

Think about this...

When a devastating fire tore through a small church in West Virginia—a fire so hot it drove back firefighters—not one of the Bibles in the church was burned!
