

JOURNEY Through the BIBLE

Under the leadership of Joshua, the children of Israel began to possess the Promised Land. As long as they remained faithful to God, He would continue to fight their battles. Walls crumbled at the sound of shouts and trumpets, the sun stood still, and Gideon's small company of men and their torches and trumpets were all part of the simple ways God worked on behalf of His people.

With God on our side, who do we have to fear? Be encouraged by these awesome stories, remain faithful to God, and trust in Him to fight for you!

Think about this...

In Barrow, Alaska, from May to August, the sun does not set for more than two and a half months! Then, from mid-November to late January, the sun never rises above the horizon!
