

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

It might seem strange that the persecutor becomes the persecuted, but that's where we find Paul in Acts 16 during this month's Journey Through the Bible. After baptizing new believers and casting out demons, Paul and Silas were beaten and imprisoned. Yet their faith was strong, and they sang and prayed to God!

As you Journey Through the Bible this month, I hope you will be encouraged by the courage of those who stood for Christ in the early church. No matter what situation you find yourself in, remember that God is always with you.

MY PLACE WITH JESUS JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE NEW TESTAMENT, YEAR 2

Completion Form

Paul and Silas were freed from their prison cell, and as a result of their witness the jailer and his family found freedom from sin in Jesus. To make the chain, cut all chain links from the template provided below. Lay the cut strips of paper out in Bible verse order. With Bible text facing out, glue where indicated to make the first link. Then loop the next strip of paper through the first link and glue. Continue in this manner until all links are in the proper verse order.
