

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

YOUR BEST FRIEND, NO MATTER WHAT YOU ARE GOING THROUGH, IS ALWAYS JESUS. MATTHEW 26:50

It is said that King Frederick of Prussia was the first to use the phrase "man's best friend." Referring to his Italian Greyhound he said, "The only, absolute and best friend that a man has, in this selfish world, the only one that will not betray or deny him, is his DOG."

What do you think? Besides accompanying you on a walk or fetching sticks or balls, dogs are loyal, protective, great company, and always happy to see us.

Let's consider who man's best friend really is. Proverbs 18:24 says, "There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother." Who do you think that is referring to? Jesus! As the famous hymn says, "What a friend we have in Jesus!" In Matthew 26:50, Jesus even referred to Judas as "Friend", even though Judas had betrayed Jesus! If Jesus called Judas His friend, you know He wants to be your friend, too.
