

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

The final chapters in Acts show the amazing power of God. Just as God had predicted, Paul survived a terrible storm and shipwreck. When Paul was bitten by a venomous snake, he didn't get sick or die! These miracles gave Paul the opportunity to witness for God.

While imprisoned in Rome, Paul wrote letters to churches and friends to instruct and encourage them. The book of Romans is one of the thirteen letters Paul wrote. A consistent theme seen throughout the book of Romans is that salvation only comes through faith in Jesus.

As you read through the selected passages of Romans, I pray you will be encouraged by the compassion, love, and mercy of God.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

A non-venomous snake bite leaves two rows of teeth marks, while the bite of a venomous snake leaves two puncture marks. When a person is bitten, they should remain calm, keep the bitten area below the heart, and avoid eating or drinking.
