

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

In this month's Journey Through the Bible, we see that sin against God led people to rebel against His will. The people of Judah threw Jeremiah into a deep and muddy pit because they did not like the prophet's message from God. The people who Ezekiel appealed to were also stubborn and hard-hearted.

But the prophets offered hope to God's people. No matter how wicked they were, God was loving, merciful, and forgiving. God promises that all who turn to Him receive the gift of eternal life.
