

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

It's time to buckle your seat belts because you are about to go on another exciting Journey Through the Bible! Until now, our journey has taken us alongside the prophets as they warned God's people regarding Babylon and captivity.

This month we will journey with Daniel and his three Hebrew friends after they were taken captive by Babylon. The story of Daniel is exciting and encouraging. The first six words found in Daniel 1:8 sum up Daniel's strength and courage, and what we can take from his story. If we purpose in our hearts to follow God, He will always be with us and do great things in our lives.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

God used Daniel to interpret King Nebuchadnezzar's dream and translate the writing on the wall. What language you can translate or interpret?

COLOR THE PICTURE

King Nebuchadnezzar built this image out of pure gold (Daniel 3:1) even though Daniel's interpretation was different. Read the verses in Daniel 2:31–33 and color the statue according to the colors given in the Bible.
