

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

The Psalms are full of precious promises of God’s continual mercy toward us! Seek God early—not only early in the morning, but early in life, and you will discover that God is your strength and helper in times of need.

When you put your trust in God, He will put a new song in your heart, and you will never need to be afraid. When you seek God, He will be your shelter and deliverer. He will order your steps throughout life and create in you a clean heart. Each day, connect with God, and let Him be your hope and strength.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

In the time of David, a city would have a tower attached to it where food was stored. This was a place of safety in the event of an enemy attack.
