

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

As we continue to read through the Psalms, we will see that God is truly good! We will read the promise that God will not keep any good thing from those who love and follow Him (Psalms 84:11).

Can you imagine, after all that the Lord did for the children of Israel—opening up the Red Sea, causing water to come from a rock, raining down manna from heaven—that they rebelled and refused to walk in His ways? I hope that after reading about the compassion, love, and patience of God, that you will ask the Lord to teach you His ways and help you to walk in them.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

Eagles will often spread their wings, as an umbrella, over their chicks to protect them from the harsh sun. Read Psalm 91:4.
