

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

Adam and Eve enjoyed walking and talking with God in the Garden of Eden. But after they sinned, they could no longer meet with God face-to-face. Even though we cannot meet with God face-to-face, we can still talk directly to Him! As you read this month, you will see that prayer is very important in the life of a follower of God. You will read stories of answered prayer, and you'll discover promises you can claim. Be encouraged that you can talk to God as a friend about anything, at any time of the day, knowing that He will hear and answer you (Isaiah 64:24, Jeremiah 33:3).

THINK ABOUT THIS:

How do you think people communicated with each other before Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in 1876?
